Wassia Kamon, CPA, CMA, MBA is the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) for ACE | Access to Capital for Entrepreneurs – the largest exclusively small business focused CDFI in the state of Georgia, providing capital, coaching, and connections to underserved entrepreneurs.

A dynamic finance professional, Kamon is known for making finance approachable, streamlining processes, and building bridges across business functions. With over 15 years of experience in corporate accounting and financial planning & analysis (FP&A), she has worked across the manufacturing, technology, pharmaceutical, and nonprofit sectors. Most recently, she served as Vice President of Finance and Corporate Controller at The Low-Income Investment Fund, a leading CDFI headquartered in San Francisco.

What sets Wassia apart is her passion for sharing knowledge.

Recognized twice as a 40 Under 40 honoree by CPA Practice Advisor, Wassia is a keynote speaker and a leading finance content creator on LinkedIn. Her insights on professional development and leadership have been featured in major publications such as The Wall Street Journal, Accounting Today, and Strategic Finance Magazine.

Wassia actively contributes to the accounting profession as a member of the AICPA Women's Initiatives Executive Committee and the Future of Finance Leadership Advisory Group. She also serves as a board member and treasurer for HOPE, Inc., a nonprofit organization supporting low-income single parents in pursuing higher education.
