

Initial AI Phone Call for Small Business Support:

Before your call, please take some time to think about the following:

- What are your business strengths and opportunities?
- What is the mission of your business?
- What obstacles and challenges are you facing in your business?
- What are your short-term (1-year) and mid-term (5-year) business goals?
- What is your unique value proposition?

We recommend writing down your responses to help guide the conversation.

For the best experience during your call, please plan to be free from distractions. We recommend that you are not driving or multitasking and are able to focus fully on the conversation. Please allow up to 15 minutes for the call. Calls typically last between 6 and 10 minutes.

Important Notice:

You will be speaking with a highly sophisticated AI Agent. You may not initially realize that it is an AI Agent, or you may notice occasional glitches. If this happens, simply repeat your statement and the system will adjust.
